Why should St. Patrick just get one day? Miss out on the Wearing of the Green last week? Well... you have the LUCK of the IRISH as the Crescent Hill Trading Company will STILL be celebrating St. Patrick's Day at the next Frankfort Avenue Trolley Hop – F.A.T. Friday - on Friday, March 25th from 6 to 10 pm.

The CHTC will be raising funds for Blessings in a Backpack with Lenten-friendly Irish Seafood Chowder prepared by Dublin-born chef Finbar Kinsella of Lilly's Restaurant. This chowder was made famous at Monk's Pub on the West Coast of Ireland in Ballyvaughn. Also, enjoy traditional Irish music courtesy of Splitbow. Splitbow band members are Rachel Blanton (fiddle), Dave Humphrey (guitar), Matt Schaffner (percussion), Nathan Hunter (accordion), and Amy Peer (vocals).

Seafood Chowder will be available for $2.00 a bowl. Proceeds will be donated to Blessings in a Backpack - a unique program designed to feed elementary school children whose families qualify for the federal Free/Reduced Price Meal program. Blessings in a Backpack is a 501 C (3) non-profit organization currently feeding over 37,600 children in 216 schools in 32 U.S. states and three countries. You may make donations by check to Blessings in a Backpack or on their website at www.blessingsinabackpack.org/donate.

The Crescent Hill Trading Company is located at 2720 Frankfort Avenue and South Bayly Avenue (behind Carmichael's bookstore). Come see what makes this store as distinctive and memorable as the neighborhood that bears its name.
